Raft

January 2015
Dev Bootcamp Final Project

I worked on a team of three to create an interactive travel app focused on finding a destination based on budget. My role revolved working on back and front end, with emphasis on setting up the database, UX, UI and Mapbox maps.

Fetch

February 2015 - Current
Personal Project

An in-progress app aimed at promoting responsible pet adoption. I started working on this on the side as I learned new skills, but aim to work with shelters for serious development.

< EXPERIENCE >

Brand Ambassador

Staffing.com.au
Sydney, USA | Oct 2011 - Jan 2013

On numerous campaigns I took on leadership and training roles while promoting various brands and staffing events. Every week I was assigned a new role, where learning new material quickly was essential.

Office Assistant & Designer

Barnsite Art Gallery
Wisconsin, USA | Jun 2008 - Dec 2010

General office duties paired with designing the gallery's promotional and web material. My work helped promote their book sales, gallery showings and art academy.
